

Information clause for participants of the scientific conference “Poland and Hungary during World War II:
State of Research, Gaps and Future Research Perspectives”

The personal data obtained will be processed for the purposes of:

- 1) registration and participation in the scientific conference: Poland and Hungary during World War II: State of Research, Gaps and Future Research Perspectives”, organised by the IPN (Institute of National Remembrance – Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation);
- 2) publication of images related to the event on the organiser’s website and official social media profiles of the organiser, as well as in IPN publications and multimedia materials;
- 3) inclusion and processing of personal data in the IPN address database, with the possibility of correction and supplementation, in all educational and research activities conducted by the IPN, as well as for the purpose of providing accommodation and reimbursement of travel expenses.

Your Personal Data Controller is the President of the Institute of National Remembrance – Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation, with its registered office in Warsaw, address:
ul. Janusza Kurtyki 1, 02-676 Warsaw.

Contact details of the Data Protection Officer at the Institute of National Remembrance: ul. Janusza Kurtyki 1, 02-676 Warsaw inspektorochronydanych@ipn.gov.pl

The legal basis for data processing is Article 6(1)(a) (consent to the processing of personal data and the image of the conference participant in accordance with Article 81(1) of the Act on copyright and related rights) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC – hereinafter referred to as the GDPR.

Your personal data will be processed for the time necessary to organise and conduct the conference and until the publication of post-conference materials on websites, media and official social media profiles of the Controller, and until your consent is withdrawn, and then stored in accordance with the deadlines specified in the IPN’s Subject Index of Records, issued pursuant to Article 6(2) of the Act of 14 July 1983 on national archival resources and archives.

The Personal Data Controller shall ensure appropriate technological, physical, administrative and procedural data protection measures to protect and ensure the confidentiality, accuracy and availability of the personal data being processed, as well as to protect against unauthorised use or unauthorised access to personal data and against personal data breaches.

The recipients of personal data may be entities authorised by the Data Controller and entities that have the right to access the data under separate legal provisions.

You have the right to access your personal data and the right to rectify, delete or restrict processing, the right to object to processing, and the right to transfer data.

You have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data. The withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office if you believe that the processing of this personal data violates the provisions of the GDPR.

I hereby consent to the processing of my personal data by the Institute of National Remembrance – Commission for the Prosecution of Crimes against the Polish Nation in connection with my participation in the conference organised by the IPN entitled “Poland and Hungary during World War II: State of Research, Gaps and Future Research Perspectives”, in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (GDPR).

(place, date)

(signature)